Contra Costa County residents are encouraged to submit nominations for the 2015 Humanitarian and Student Humanitarian of the Year Awards. Each January, the Board of Supervisors recognizes a community member as well as a student leader whose dedication to others embodies the spirit and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

For 2014, our Humanitarian of the Year was Sister Ann Weltz, founder and Executive Director of the Bay Area Crisis Nursery. Dougherty Valley high school student Anand Kannappan was selected as the Student Humanitarian. Nominations can come from any resident of the County for both categories. Those selected as our annual winners will be presented with their awards during a special ceremony paying tribute to Dr. King on Tuesday, January 20, 2015.

The public will be invited to the ceremony, which traditionally features a keynote speaker and live entertainment as well as the presentation of awards.

Submit your nomination online by visiting the County's website at www.ContraCostaCA.gov.

The deadline to submit names for consideration is Friday, December 5, 2014.
